Program #3

1969

Oliver Everette reads the Death of Stephen. It is a series of individual poems that are units in themselves. He will not be reading the entire group. He will give the subtitles. The title Stephen comes from the biblical person. He is the first Christian martyr. The series of poems are an outgrowth of the parish ministry. He is looking upon the individual pastor as a sort of another Christ. He is not a substitute for Christ but as a pastor he will also have to imitate the life and suffering of Christ in his ministry. He reads the sections of the Death of Stephen.
