An Ethnography of Spirituality in the Upper Kuskokwim Region

IRB # 646745-2

Date Approved _9 / 29/ _2014

Description of the Study:

You are being asked to take part in a research study about contemporary spirituality in Athabascan villages. The goal of this study is to learn about how people in Upper Kuskokwim region think about spirits and God and go to different religious ceremonies. You are being asked to take part in this study because you are originally from or currently live in Upper Kuskowkim region. Please read this form carefully. We encourage you to ask questions and take the opportunity to discuss the study before making a decision on whether or not to participate.

If you decide to take part, Shiaki Kondo, the student researcher for this project will ask you to answer questions . It will take 30 minutes. If you would like to talk more, you can do so. This interview will be recorded and used for the research project. If you agree, the recording may also be used for radio programs on Voice of Denali Radio (KRFF FM 89.1), Fairbanks. If you agree, the recording may also be stored in the Oral History Archive, UAF Library for preservation of traditional knowledge and local history.

- Mark the box if you agree that the recording may be used for radio programs on Voice of Denali Radio.
- Mark the box if you want to be consulted again before use of the recording for radio program(s) on Voice of Denali Radio.
- Mark the box if you want to store the recording in the Oral History Program, UAF Library for preservation.

Risks and Benefits of Being in the Study:

- There are no risks anticipated if you take part in this study. Please do not talk about things you do not want others to know.
- The benefit to you for taking part in this study is that this project helps to document traditional knowledge you would like to pass on to the next generation. You will also receive compensation in the amount of $25 for you participation.

Compensation:

You will receive $25 for a session. Shiaki will give you a check after the interview.

Confidentiality:

- We will securely store all research records.
- Your name will not be used in reports, presentations, and publications if you want the information to remain confidential.

Mark the box if you want your name NOT to be used in reports, presentations and publications.

Voluntary Nature of the Study:

Your decision to take part in this research project is voluntary. You are free to choose whether or not to take part in the project. If you decide to take part, you can stop at any time or change your mind and ask to have your information removed from the study. Whether or not you choose to participate, will not affect you.

Contacts and Questions:

If you have questions now, feel free to ask me now. If you have questions later, you may contact Shiaki Kondo (skondo@alaska.edu or 907-687-5787).

The UAF Institutional Review Board (IRB) is a group that examines research projects involving people. This review is done to protect the people like you who are involved the research.
