Letter of Accession and Licence for Non-Commercial Research and Library Preservation Purposes

I, JULIAN DOWNHILL agree to the accession of a copy of the recording known as the interview between William Mills and Mary Swthinbank on 14 May 1998 as part of the University of Cambridge Scott Polar Research (SPRI) Oral History programme Collection by the University of Alaska Fairbanks (UAF) Rasmuson Library.

In addition, I hereby grant to the University of Alaska Fairbanks Rasmuson Library a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free licence to the above referenced recording for the purposes of its UAF Oral History Program, which makes its recordings available to students, scholars, and members of the general public. Copies of the recording along with accompanying transcripts or summaries may be available on the Internet, through the Library Catalog or physically at the UAF Oral History Collection office. Duplicate copies of recordings, transcripts or transcript summaries may be made for circulation and preservation purposes; complimentary copies may be made for narrators and their families; and researchers may purchase copies of released recordings, transcripts or transcript summaries for their personal and non-commercial research use.

Should the Library be approached by a commercial company wishing to use the material (for example for a documentary film or broadcast program) the Library will make its best efforts to contact you for your permission. In return, SPRI will keep the Library informed of its most up-to-date contact information.
