RE: Restrictions on use of tapes.

In reference to our conversation this morning, here is something for your paper trail.

Regarding use of taped interviews conducted by me in the Bering Straits region, I see no problem with other researchers using the information from these tapes in a general sense. I do not, however, feel that the names of the interviewees should be used in any way, nor do I think that these people should be approached after the fact and asked for releases on these interviews.

If you have any further questions regarding Bering Straits interviews or need help in any way, feel free to come bother me.

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Bill".
