"FAA allowed aircraft ~~parts~~ companies to make their own parts. & they owned the aircraft. So Alaska Airlines did that. They ordered 100 lbs a year, for the upcoming year. Same with extruders."

"SE Alaska is paved with nuts & bolts from APB's. Once a APB's exhaust stack fell off on the runway in Anchorage, and ~~it~~ ~~to~~ ~~be~~ ~~on~~ ~~the~~ ~~runway~~ another plane had to radio them to tell them it was missing." we used to get war surplus spark plugs. 2¢ a piece. So if there was any doubt we charged 'em.
